

Crosspool Festival

26 June to 5 July

Welcome to the sixth Crosspool Festival! Our theme this year is 'Joy' and we have events old and new in this year's programme — so please join in, try something new, and come together with neighbours and friends to celebrate and have fun. Whatever your taste we hope there will something here for you to enjoy.

This year Forum members have chosen Care in Crosspool & Roundabout, a housing charity working with young people, to be the charities to which any surplus generated will be donated.

The Festival Committee :

Frances, Chris, Eileen, Jan, Lindsey, Paula, Roger, Sally & Suzanne

We are very grateful to Haybrook Estate Agents, Banner Cross, whose continued support has made the production of this year's brochure possible.

Please visit Crosspool Pet Supplies, Sandygate Road in June to buy tickets for this years events

Friday 26 June 7pm

WELL DRESSING DEDICATION

Outside the Crosspool Tavern

Revd. Suzanne Nockels & Rev Will Fletcher will dedicate the Crosspool floral display, created by local volunteers, where it will remain on view throughout the Festival week. Followed by refreshments in Lounge@Crosspool

All week from 27 June

Scarecrow Competition

Look out for the Crosspool Festival scarecrows in front gardens, in a family competition on the theme of Joy, to be judged by local sculptor Noel Lockley. More details from Lounge@Crosspool

Saturday 27 June 10am -4 pm

CROSSPOOL OPEN GARDENS

Gardens to suit everyone. Flowers, trees, wildlife, interests, fruit and vegetables. All with tea, coffee and cake! —visit all with a £4 programme available in advance from Lounge@Crosspool or on the day from Crosspool Pet Supplies. Children free.

All funds raised are for charities detailed in the programme.

Saturday 27 June 10.30am—4pm

Picnic with Alpacas at Holly Hagg

Wildlife and food growing project on 3 acres. Bring a picnic, take the tour, feed the alpacas, learn how we work with nature, make a scarecrow, plant some seeds. Plants and refreshments on sale. Dogs allowed on leads and under control. Deep water so children, must be accompanied by an adult. Limited disabled access. Refreshments available. Free but donations are welcomed. You will find Holly Hagg on Long Lane, off Stephen Hill/Back Lane (Crosspool end of Bole Hill Road). Near S10 5PY but do not turn up Clough Fields.

For further information contact Claire 0777 9067718

Saturday 27 June 10.30-12.45pm

CROSSPOOL CHOCOLATE FACTORY- MAKE AND MATINEE

Make chocolate cakes, sweets, crafts and find out about Fairtrade Chocolate, then watch the 1971 classic 'Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory' with a tub of popcorn in our Chapel Cinema .

This event is free but places on the door are limited. Please book your child aged 7-12 years a place by phoning

0114 2325790 or 07710 183477

This event is organised by the Children's Leaders of Tapton Hill Congregational Church

Tapton Hill Congregational Church, Tapton Hill Road

Saturday 27 June 1—4pm

Lydgfest

Lydgate Infant School Festival and Food & Craft Market

Saturday 27 June 1-4pm

Hillside Harvest Open Day

Visit the local cooperative that benefits the community, providing an alternative to starting your own allotment. Share in the fun, work and produce.

Our 6 allotments already have over 60 beds, espalier fruit trees, poly-tunnel, & wildlife pond. Last year members shared around 500kg of produce!
New members always welcome and we welcome volunteers and educational groups.

Open 1-4pm Light refreshments available.

Drive down Hagg Hill, park on the left and follow the sign on the right at the bottom to Hillside Harvest.

Sunday 28 June

STREET MARKET : SELBORNE ROAD

12 noon to 4pm

Over 40 stalls - food, cakes, plants, crafts, jewellery, clothes, books and entertainment throughout the afternoon

CROSSPOOL ART GROUP

During the Market, Crosspool Art Group will be exhibiting in the garden at 55 Selborne Road. Teas & picnic facilities will also be available.

Cairn Home Garden Party

With afternoon teas a raffle, tombola and lots of other games to take part in. Raising funds for the residential care home.

Sunday 28 June 8.00pm

A Crosspool Quiz

Crosspool Tavern, Manchester Road

All week from Saturday 27 June

Festival photography competition

Take a look at the winning entries depicting Things that give me joy for the young people's festival photography competition, on display at Cocker & Carr Estate Agents, Sandygate Road, and vote for your favourite on the Crosspool Forum website

On selected weekday mornings there will be entertainment in the Forum in Stephen Hill Church. Come and just relax with friends or join in the activities.

All these free events are detailed below.

There is a small charge for refreshments

Monday 29 June 10.30am

The Ian Sharpe Duo entertain with "All That Jazz".

Two talented musicians having fun with a variety of instruments
In the Forum in Stephen Hill Church

Monday 29 June 2pm

BLITZ AND BUNS: STORIES OF THE SHEFFIELD BLITZ

Local historian Paul Clarke marks the anniversary of the Sheffield Blitz, sharing his discoveries in his book 'Bombed but Unbowed', about the extraordinary Sheffield spirit in one of our darkest times. Enjoy homemade vintage tea and cakes. Please book by phoning 7532 001668 or call in the café

Lounge@Crosspool

Monday 29 June 6.00 – 6.30pm

TREASURE HUNT

Join 36th SHEFFIELD (St John's Ranmoor) Beaver Colony on a Treasure Hunt around Crosspool, For children up to 8 accompanied by an adult : older children are welcome to come with you. Collect a map from the Scout HQ on Benty Lane between 6.00pm & 6.30pm, gather clues, & return by 7.15pm to collect your "Treasure". Maps are £3 per family or £1.50 if any of the children in your family are in Beaver, Cub or Scout Uniform and necker (from any Scout Group). Refreshments are available at the Scout HQ until 7.30pm

All week from Monday 29 June

Walk the St. Columba Labyrinth!

A labyrinth is like a maze, with the important difference that its path has no dead ends. Walking a labyrinth is a meditative journey, a structured activity providing resources for contemplation and prayer, so come and experience our labyrinth at St. Columba's. Entitled "The Big Story" it represents the big themes of the Christian story. Walk in silence, or with a music/prose accompaniment through headphones.

Open Mon 11 – 2, Tues 2 – 7, Wed 11 – 2, Thur 2 – 5, Fri 11 – 2.

Crosspool Now and Then

Fancy taking the "history walk" by yourself? Get yourself a copy of Crosspool Now and Then available at the Market, & locally throughout Festival week

The walks cover Crosspool, Sandygate, Lydgate, Bell Hagg and Tapton Hill right back to 1695, looking at who lived here and where and what they did.

Lots of old photos and stories to enjoy.

Tuesday 30 June 10.00am

Guided history walk around Crosspool

Led by Jan Millward, looking at historical places of interest in the Crosspool area with interesting stories about the people who lived and worked here.

Meet outside St Columba's, Manchester Road, to start the walk which will take about an hour and a half.

Tuesday 30 June 11.00am

PRE—SCHOOL SING-ALONG

In the Forum in Stephen Hill Church, - Pre-School Sing-Along. Bring a Mum Dad or Grandma and join in with your favourite Nursery Songs with Frances on the piano

Tuesday 30 June 6.30—8pm

Guides coffee evening

Stalls & refreshments

St Columba's Church, Manchester Road

Tuesday 30 June, from 7.00pm

The Richard Francis Duo

Versatile multi-instrumental & vocal duo

Crosspool Tavern, Manchester Road

Wednesday 1 July 2pm

GARDENERS QUESTION TIME

In the café courtyard, Valleyside Garden Centre, Manchester Rd,

Enjoy refreshments while you sort out your gardening problems with local expert Richard Jackson, Answers to your plant questions as well as a short talk on protecting and supporting your plants throughout the seasons

Wednesday 1 July 3.30pm

FUN RUN

Tapton/King Edward VII School Field

Open to all Crosspool children up to 11, with races for Mums & Dads.
Entry forms available from Lydgate Junior School

Wednesday 1 July 7.30pm

A Life through Rock Climbing : An Illustrated Talk by Steve McClure

One of the best rock-climbers in the world, having climbed the hardest sport route in the UK, Steve McClure knew from early childhood encounters with the sandstone outcrops of the North York Moors that he was destined to be a rock climber.

Now Sheffield based, his new book, Beyond Limits, tells the story of a climber and his obsessive exploration of the sport, of finding a true passion, taking it to the limits, and then the careful balancing of this passion against other areas of life to give the greatest rewards.

7.30pm , Hallam FC Clubhouse, Sandygate Road
(the bar will be open from 7.00 before the talk)

Admission Free
retiring collection for Festival charities

Signed copies of Steve's book will be on sale

Thursday 2 July 10.30

The Stephen Hill Trio will entertain with a mixture of Songs, Piano Solos and Comic Verse

In the Forum in Stephen Hill Church

Thursday 2 July 7.30pm

Festival Gala Concert

featuring the Sheffield Folk Chorale and introducing the talents of local young harpist - Ciara Noon
Stephen Hill Church, Manchester Road.

Tickets £7 include Interval Coffee/Tea and biscuits, from Roger Kite (2306194) Bob Hodges (2303207)
or Crosspool Pet Supplies

Friday 3 July 8.00 pm

An Evening of Live Entertainment

In the Crosspool Tavern, Manchester Road

Saturday 4 July 7:15 pm

Tapton Hill Congregational Church
Tapton Hill Road, Crosspool
presents

Pipe Organ Recital

by

John Silverton

Admission free—retiring collection

Details of programme at <http://taptonchurch.com/Church-Diary.php>

Saturday 4 July 8—11pm

Abba Night

Get into the seventies groove and enjoy an evening of good-time music, karaoke, dancing and all round fun with the highly regarded Shep's
Disco. Big hair and platform shoes optional but not essential! Tickets £3.50 in advance from Crosspool Pet Supplies, or on the door subject to availability.

BYO – glasses available

St. Columba's Church Hall, Manchester Road

CROSSPOOL FORUM

*Crosspool Clarion
Crosspool News*

HAVING A VOICE --- MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Invite you to enjoy an afternoon at their annual

Summer Fayre

Coldwell Lane Sportsfield

(if wet, in the Sports Hall)

Saturday 4th July

1.00 pm

Faye Buxton

opens an afternoon of Music Fun & Laughter for the Whole Family

"Barney Baloney Show"

Musical Group - Clog Dancers

Irish Dancing Display

~ Lucky Dip | Face Painting | Bouncy Castle/Slide ~

~ Coconut Shy | Wellie Wanging | Tombola ~

~ Pirate & the Princess Wet Sponge | Skull Island ~

~ Refreshments | Craft & Cake stalls ~

Duck Shooting | Archery | Tin-Can Alley

~ Second Hand Books | Plants | Bric-a-Brac ~

~ & many many more Stalls & Attractions ~

Entrance 50p on the Gate

Tele: 07713 687 955 Crosspoolforum@fsmail.net

Sunday 5 July 12.30

Folk Picnic Service in the Park

Churches Together in Hallam invite you to a folk music themed service on Lydgate Green to mark the closing of the Crosspool Festival. We're delighted to welcome the Bamford Village Singers with their distinctive blend of folk and gospel, plus folk renditions of traditional hymns. A picnic will follow – just bring your own lunch! In the event of bad weather the service will take place at St. Columba's.

There will be a rehearsal with Bamford Village Singers the previous week for any Crosspool musicians or singers who would like to sing/play along at the service - all welcome. Phone Bob Townrow for more details: 2301098

Sunday 5 July 4-6pm

Celebrate creation!

Festival Messy Church at Carver Fields off Hagg Lane : to find us, take the footpath opposite the end of Den Bank Drive.

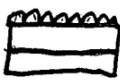

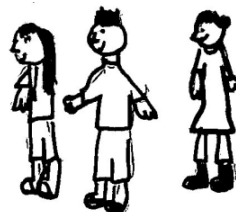

(In St Columba's if wet - check on our website : stcolumbacrosspool.org.uk)

Families welcome to celebrate God's creation together with activities and games and a picnic tea (provided). Contact Diane Ryan 07501 271754 for more information

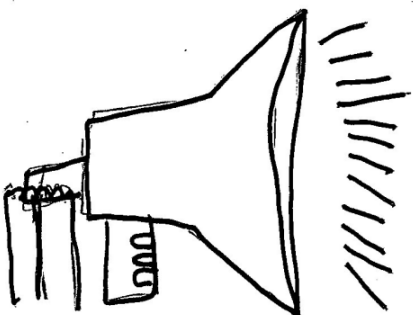

Our prize winning cover designs are by Lily Holt, Lydgate Infant School [front] and Polly Hill, Lydgate Junior School [back]. These & other entries can be seen in Cocker & Carr Estate Agents, Sandygate Road. We'd like to thank all the talented artists from both schools who entered.

2015

26th June - 5th July

2015!
Crosspool
Festival

